

CUBA, SURVIVING THE PANDEMIC AND BEYOND

DELEGATION TO CUBA

JANUARY 6-15, 2023

*ALL DELEGATIONS WILL REQUIRE THAT DELEGATES BE VACCINATED

ABOUT THIS DELEGATION

Learn how Cubans have survived multiple apocalyptic moments and built a new society on this BIPOC delegation. One with universal healthcare, education, housing, food distribution, and with leadership of, reference to, and solidarity with Black, Indigenous, and global anti-colonial struggles. The delegation will meet with people's historians who accompany the fight for collective memory and self-determination, meet with Cubans who chart a new destiny, and visit memorials to intervention and to revolutionaries..

Cost: $1,600-2,400 + airfare

Delegation fee covers all meals, lodging, transportation, interpretation, and reading and activist tools

Application and $250 deposit due August 1st, 2022

Sliding Scale Fees and Payment Plans are available
